Let's Read! Primary 1 programme was developed by a large group of educators and experts under the leadership of the Nigerian Educational Research and Development Council (NERDC) and the USAID-funded Northern Education Initiative Plus. Professor Ismail Junaidu, the Executive Secretary of NERDC, supported the programme from the initial stages through to completion. Denise O'Toole and Dr. Nura Ibrahim from the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) provided guidance and valuable advice at all stages of the materials development. Under the able leadership of Dr. Jordene Hale and Nurudeen Lawal, these materials were completed. Dr. Mark Hamilton, Dr. Nancy Clark Chiarelli, Lydia Ezihe Onuoha, Mary Sugrue and Joy du Plessis provided technical expertise on reading. Expert graphic design of the materials was in the hands of Godwin Ondoma and Samson Lawrence. John Akanbi Nhorj, Mustapha Bulama, John Mutum, Aliyu Mustapha and Uche Idu illustrated the materials.

Kaka gave me twenty naira.

“Go to the market. Buy salt for cooking,” Kaka said. “Do not stop to play.”

I put the money in my pocket.

On the way to the market, children were playing football.

Ali called, “Stop to play!” Rabiou called, “Stop to play football.”

I stopped to play.

When I got to the market I looked in my pocket.

Kaka's money was gone!

Slowly, I went home.

“Where is the salt?”
Kaka asked.

“I stopped to play,” I said. “I dropped the money.”

Kaka frowned.

“Have you learned a lesson?” Kaka said.

“Yes, Kaka,” I said.
“Tomorrow, I will not stop to play on the way to the market.”

“You are a good boy,”
she said.

“Let’s go find your friends,” said Kaka. Kaka smiled, while I played with my friends.
